SCPL Online Book Club – Now on Facebook

Join the conversation!

The St. Catharines Public Library is now hosting our online book club on Facebook. This book club facilitates discussion about popular titles, including recent bestsellers, genre fiction, memoirs, and narrative nonfiction. One new title will be featured each month, alternating between fiction and nonfiction titles from month to month.

Interested? Join today and contribute your thoughts and opinions to the discussion! The book club does not take place in real time, so you can participate whenever it is convenient for you. New members are always welcome! To join our Facebook group, click Groups in the left menu on your News Feed, enter "SCPL Online Book Club" in the search bar at the top, then select the group and click "+ Join Group" below the cover photo.

JULY - Non-Fiction

Maybe You Should Talk to Someone by Lori Gottlieb

In this New York Times bestselling memoir, psychotherapist Lori Gottlieb becomes the patient when a crisis upends her own life. Alternating between sessions with her therapist, Wendell, and sessions with her own patients, Gottlieb's narrative explores the truths we tell ourselves, the questions we struggle with, and reveals what makes us human with poignancy, wisdom, and humour.

In these unprecedented times, access to reliable news and information is more important than ever. With PressReader, you can read your favourite newspapers and magazines from around the world without leaving home! View and search full-page, digital versions of current and recent newspapers and magazines from over 100 countries, in over 60 languages, on your computer or mobile device. Canadian titles include the St. Catharines Standard, National Post and Toronto Star.

Click on the Online Resources button on the Library's website and select the Newspapers & Magazines category to access this comprehensive resource.

Ancestry Library Edition is a research tool offering the most comprehensive genealogical information available online. It provides instant access to billions of historical documents such as census records, military records, court, land and probate records, vital and church records, passenger lists and more. It also offers access to millions of historical photos, indexes and other resources in over 30,000 databases that span from the 1500s to the 2000s.

NOTE: During the Covid-19 pandemic, access to this resource has been temporarily expanded to Library cardholders working remotely during the months of June and July.
